TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF MEMBERSHIP

1. Membership to the club must be held for a minimum period of one year and membership can only be cancelled after 12 months subscription has been paid in full. Part subscriptions are non refundable to members who leave before the end of the subscription year. please initial to confirm acknowledgement
2. Cancellation of membership must be given to the Club; it may be in writing or verbally over the telephone or in person. If you cancel, a note of the time and date will be put on your file to this effect.
3. New or temporary members will not be able to use the facilities before payment of their subscriptions.
4. To cover the cost of administration and to discourage irregular membership, new members (and ex-members re-joining) shall pay a joining fee in addition to their first subscription.
5. Direct debits may be set up for certain membership types, if the direct debit payment is cancelled prior to one year's membership the member will be liable to pay the outstanding membership subscription to the Club and will be contacted by the Club to make this payment. Giving the direct debit payment option to a member is at the discretion of the Committee, it can be taken away if there is an episode of rejected payments.
6. Reminders for subscription renewals will be sent prior to the renewal date. If renewal subscriptions are not paid within 14 days of the due date we shall deem that the member has resigned and membership will be cancelled. After this time, renewals will incur an additional joining fee.
7. Members may bring a guest to the club for a fee of £5 per visit (£3 for juniors). The same guest may only visit the club five times in one year, after five visits they must become a member if they wish to visit the Club again. Guests must sign the Visitor's book and pay their fees before playing.
8. A Membership/Clubroom card will issued free of charge however replacements for lost/damaged cards will be charged at £3.00. Only members aged 12+ are eligible for the card and may only be used by the named holder. Discounted bar and food prices can only be claimed when paying with funds pre-deposited on your card.
9. The Club prohibits members from conducting any business on Club premises which is in direct competition to the services we provide, or conducting any other business on Club property for personal benefit without prior agreement from a member of staff or Committee member.
