

Origin

Soon after partition, Late Sh. Sardari Lal Bahri, Late S. Makhan Singh, Late Sh. Tulsī Dass Khanna and Late Sh. Murari Lal Bahri, migrated to India and joined hands to set the foundation of an ambitious venture.

The year was 1949, with 2 rambling trucks operating from wooden stalls at Lahori Gate, Delhi, a star was born called the Jaipur Golden Transport Company.

Under the adroit aegis of these four partners, and with the able assistance from seasoned Directors, dynamic executives, 2000 dedicated employees, Jaipur Golden blossomed into one of the largest and most reputed Transport Company in India, approved by the Indian Banks Association.

Objective

We endeavour to serve our customers with speed, safety and service. Constantly striving to improve upon previous achievements and in pursuit of excellence.

Activities

- Transportation of goods from starting point to the desired destination.
- Internet Tracking of the status of consignment.
- Computerized Arrivals and Dispatches.
- Temporary Godown Facility for goods in transit.

We carry your trust