Towards Client Satisfaction

"Our experience with ANGLER has been fantastic. ANGLER possesses the right combination of technical and design skills which has made it very easy to interact with them."

Dr. Ganesh Devaraj, Managing Director
Soliton Technologies, USA / India

"ANGLER hits all the marks. They have strong process and good quality control. Getting a major project off the ground is hard work and that is no different here, but in sharp contrast to our in-house attempts, I am not having to argue and justify all the time; ANGLER just get on with it. That is a big relief."

Dr. Alex J. Turner, Senior Architect
The Project Network, UK

Angler Technologies have done a great job for us. They have good resource pool available of qualified IT staff so I know when I am in need of a reliable and efficient helping hand I can quickly get it. I am also very impressed with their Quality Control system. Because of their fantastic work, I have extended my contract with them, I am looking forward to work with Angler Technologies.

Mr. Kashif Saleem, CEO
Saleem Technologies, Australia

We are developing a cutting edge product and Angler proved to be the best partner in this development, which happens in a speedy manner without compromising quality. The technical aspects of the project is handled well by the Angler technical team. It has been a pleasure dealing with Angler, and trusting them on a critical project turned out to be the right investment for FreshTick.
