

Elaine Strachan-Hall - Partner

Clinical Governance & Transformation

A transformational leader, who aligns clinical expertise, commercial acumen and emotional intelligence to deliver regional, national and international healthcare improvement programmes, focused on areas such as patient safety, patient and public engagement/experience and a multidisciplinary clinical career frameworks.

An executive nurse who utilises her considerable board level experience of leading independent, community, acute and commissioning sectors to support challenged healthcare organisations to improve clinical capability, competence and governance.

Elaine specialises in the provision of increased executive capacity, practical mentoring support and improvement programme development/delivery. She is an experienced coach and speaker/subject matter expert on interview practice and individual/team cohesion and performance.

Elaine holds a PHD and M.S.c in nursing, an MBA and is registered general nurse.